Hang Seng China 50 Index Fund

February 2025

IMPORTANT RISK WARNINGS / FUND INFORMATION FOR HONG KONG INVESTORS

- Hang Seng China 50 Index Fund (the "Fund") invests primarily in the constituent stocks of the Hang Seng China 50 Index (the "Index"). The coverage of the Index includes mainland China-listed A-shares and B-shares, Hong Kong-listed H-shares, red chip shares and shares of other Hong Kong-listed Mainland companies.
 - The Net Asset Value of the Fund may be affected unfavourably by fluctuations in the exchange rates between the currencies of the Fund's underlying investments and the Fund's base currency and by changes in exchange rate controls.
 - The Fund's investment in equity securities is subject to general market risks, whose value may fluctuate.
 - The Fund is subject to passive investment risk and tracking error risk. There can be no assurance of exact or identical replication at any time of the performance of the Index.
 - The Fund is subject to concentration risk. The value of the Fund may be more volatile than that of a fund having a more diverse portfolio of investments, and may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting mainland China.
 - Investing in an emerging market (such as mainland China) may involve increased risks and special considerations not typically associated with investment in more developed markets. The Fund is subject to the risk associated with high volatility and regulatory/exchanges requirements/policies of the equity market in an emerging market.
 - The Fund is subject to the risks associated with investment made through a QFI and Stock Connects. The laws, rules and regulations applicable to them are subject to change and such change may have potential retrospective effect.
 - RMB is currently not freely convertible and is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. Non RMB-based investors are exposed to foreign exchange risks.
 - Investment involves risks and investors may lose substantial part of their investment in the Fund.
- Investors should not only base on this material alone to make investment decisions, but should read the Fund's offering documents (including the full text of the risk factors stated therein) in detail.

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to match as closely as practicable, before fees and expenses, the total return performance (net of withholding tax) of the Hang Seng China 50 Index (the "Index") through investing primarily in the constituent stocks of the Index.

Investment Objective and Strategy

The investment objective of the Fund is to match as closely as practicable, before fees and expenses, the total return performance (net of withholding tax) of the Hang Seng China 50 Index (the "Index") through investing primarily in the constituent stocks of the Index. The Manager primarily adopts the full replication strategy by which the assets of the Fund comprise the constituent stocks with reference to their respective weightings in the Index. In order to maximise portfolio management efficiency, minimise transaction cost and tracking error, exposure to the Index may also be obtained through other index-tracking strategies (such as sampling strategies) or financial derivative instruments from which the return to the Fund will substantially reflect the performance of the Index. In relation to the investment in mainland China-listed A-shares, the Fund invests through a QFI and Stock Connect.
