JPMorgan Asia Growth Fund

- The Fund invests at least 70% in equity securities of companies whose predominant business will benefit from, or is related to, the growth in Asian economies. The Fund will have limited RMB denominated underlying investments.
- The Fund is therefore exposed to risks related to equity, emerging markets, concentration, smaller companies, currency, liquidity, high volatility of the equity market in the Asian region, Chinese variable interest entity, derivatives, class currency and currency hedged classes. For RMB hedged class, risks associated with the RMB currency and currency hedged classes risks. RMB is currently not freely convertible and RMB convertibility from offshore RMB (CNH) to onshore RMB (CNY) is a managed currency process subject to foreign exchange control policies of and restrictions imposed by the Chinese government. There can be no assurance that RMB will not be subject to devaluation at some point. The Manager may, under extreme market conditions when there is not sufficient RMB for currency conversion and with the approval of the Trustee, pay redemption monies and/or distributions in USD.
- Investors may be subject to substantial losses.
- Investors should not solely rely on this document to make any investment decision.

JPMorgan Asia Growth Fund

Objective and Investment Strategy

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide investors with long-term capital appreciation by investing at least 70% of its total net asset value in equity securities of companies whose predominant business will benefit from, or is related to, the growth in Asian economies.

The Fund is not subject to any limitation on the portion of its total net asset value that may be invested in any sector or any limitation on the market capitalisation of the companies in which it may invest.

The Fund's aggregate exposure (direct and indirect) to China A-Shares and B-Shares may not exceed 10% of its total net asset value and should this investment policy in China A-Shares and/or B-Shares change in the future, one month's prior notice will be given to unitholders and the offering document will be updated accordingly.

The Fund may also invest in derivatives such as options, warrants and futures for investment purposes.

The Fund's net derivative exposure may be up to 50% of the Fund's net asset value.

The Investment Manager seeks to achieve the stated objectives. There can be no guarantee the objectives will be met. Investment involves risk. Past performance is not indicative of future performance. The above contains only partial information of the Fund's objective and investment strategy. Please refer to the offering document(s) for details, including the risk factors.
